

LEADINGAGE Annual Meeting + EXPO

OCTOBER 16 - 19, 2022

Colorado Convention Center | Denver, CO

LEADERS OF COLOR PROGRAM at the 2022 LeadingAge Annual Meeting + EXPO

LeadingAge has created the Leaders of Color Network as a professional networking group for senior, mid-level, and emerging leaders of color.

The program provides opportunities for supporting and facilitating career advancement and sharing professional career opportunities. The network is a sounding board to share challenges related to race, and a forum to exchange resources and ideas tailored to the expressed needs and interests of people of color within our field.

DATES	COST	LOCATION
October 16 - 19, 2022	Varies by category	Colorado Convention Center, Denver, CO

LEADERS OF COLOR SCHOLARSHIP INFO

connect RN

Sponsored by LeadingAge partner connectRN, LeadingAge invites leaders of color to submit scholarship applications for a chance to attend the 2022 Annual Meeting + EXPO.

Scholarships include individual registration for the four-day conference (Sunday-Wednesday). Hotel accommodations and airfare (if applicable) will need to be covered by the employer or individual.

The 2022 Annual Meeting + EXPO program includes:

- Panel Discussion with Dr. Erika James, Dean, Wharton School of Business, University of Pennsylvania and other leaders of color on management strategy and crisis leadership.
- Leaders of Color Network business meeting to discuss the purpose and structure of the network, future activities and events, and create a database of network members.
- Two daily huddles to join other leaders of color to network and share best practices and ideas for developing a diverse pipeline of aging services leaders.
- 10 education tracks, including one devoted to Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, that feature 20+ sessions suggested for leaders of color.

LeadingAge has 20 available scholarships and scholarship applications and acceptance will be on a rolling basis.

Apply for Leaders of Color Scholarship